Robert Kleinhenz

Join BOMA Inland Empire as we hear what's in store economically for the rest of 2026, and into 2027. Dr. Kleinhenz, a distinguished economist and expert in the Inland Empire economy, will provide valuable insights into the current economic landscape.

Robert Kleinhenz, Ph.D. is Principal Economist and Founder of the firm Kleinhenz Economics. A leading voice on the economy, Dr. Kleinhenz has over 30 years of experience in urban and regional economics. He has worked with numerous clients in the private sector, the public sector, and academia, and has produced a variety of economic forecasts, economic impact studies, industry studies, housing analyses, tax revenue analyses, and public policy analyses. In addition to his duties with Kleinhenz Economics, Robert is on the faculty at Cal State Long Beach and is the Director of the University's Office of Economic Research. He is also a Senior Research Fellow with the Inland Empire Economic Partnership. He has also held academic positions at USC, UC Riverside, and Cal State Fullerton.
